Statute quotes

Claims (§ 42-133s(j)): "Any claim not disapproved in writing or by means of electronic transmission not later than thirty days after receipt shall be deemed approved and payment shall be made within thirty days."
Chargebacks (§ 42-133s(j)): "manufacturers or distributors retain the right to audit such claims and to charge-back the dealer for false or unsubstantiated claims for a period of one year following payment."
Rate (§ 42-133s(c); see (d), (f)): "The retail rate customarily charged by the dealer for labor may be established by submitting to the manufacturer or distributor all nonwarranty customer-paid service repair orders covering repairs made during the month prior to the submission"
Factory time (§ 42-133s(h)): "Time allowances for the diagnosis and performance of warranty work and service shall be reasonable and adequate for the work to be performed."

Notes

Time allowances must be 'reasonable and adequate' ((h)). No cost recovery through surcharges ((g)). No-cost parts are paid at the average markup ((e)). The labor sample is a full prior month of customer-pay ROs, which is unusual. P.A. 26-24 (effective 10/1/2026) also replaces the § 42-133r definitions (§ 20) and amends §§ 42-133bb and 42-133cc (facility rules). P.A. 26-24 § 20 re-enacts the § 42-133r definitions unchanged and adds only facility (substantial alteration) and consumer-data definitions; no effect on warranty scope, audits, chargebacks or rates.
