Claims (N.J. Stat. Ann. § 56:10-15(f), (p)): "All claims for reimbursement shall be approved or disapproved within 30 days after receipt of the claim by the motor vehicle franchisor."
Chargebacks (N.J. Stat. Ann. § 56:10-15(f), (p)): "A motor vehicle franchisor shall not audit a claim after the expiration of 12 months following the payment of the claim unless the motor vehicle franchisor has reasonable grounds to believe that the claim was fraudulent"
Rate (N.J. Stat. Ann. § 56:10-15(l); exclusions (j)(3); frequency…): "The average retail labor rate shall be calculated by multiplying the total labor charges in the sample by 1.0 and dividing that amount by the total number of labor hours in the sample."
Factory time (§ 56:10-15(m)): "at the motor vehicle franchisee's discretion, an established average retail labor time allowance, in lieu of the motor vehicle franchisor's labor time guide for franchisor-paid repairs or service"

Notes

DATE-SENSITIVE: the text above took effect 4/1/2026 and applies to franchise agreements in effect on or after that date. Earlier causes of action are governed by prior law. The rate takes effect automatically at 30 days, and the statute sets no deadline for the franchisor's audit or adjustment. Optional labor-time multiplier ((m)): hours billed on 100 sequential (or 90 days of) customer-pay ROs divided by franchisor-guide hours for the same repairs, applied to the franchisor time guide. Dealers must pass labor pay through to factory-certified flat-rate technicians. Scope covers repair service 'offered and reimbursed by the motor vehicle franchisor', including warranty, extended warranty, maintenance plan, service-related plan and recall. It reaches affiliates and 1%+ owners ((g)) and franchisor-administered plans in the four (h) situations. When the franchisor supplies EV propulsion bat…
