Hourly rate: Principal factor: 'the prevailing wage rates being paid by dealers in the community'. The floor is the dealer's own rates for like service to retail or fleet customers, excluding listed maintenance work. There is no statutory labor-rate declaration formula; the 100 ROs/90 days/180-day method is written for parts markup. The manufacturer may request up to 100 additional ROs from a 90-day window to test the declared 'retail labor rate' and may adjust if the dealer's retail rat…

Statute quotes

Claims (Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-1438(4)-(5)): "All claims made by a new motor vehicle dealer pursuant to this section for labor and parts shall be made within six months after completing the work and shall be paid within thirty days after their approval."

Chargebacks (Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-1438(5)): "The manufacturer has the right to audit the claims for one year after payment, except that if the manufacturer has reasonable cause to believe that a claim submitted by a dealer is intentionally false or fraudulent"

Rate (Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-1438(2)(a); RO test (2)(c); negotiated…): "In determining prevailing wage rates, the rate of compensation for labor for that portion of repair orders for all recommended maintenance services shall not be used"

Factory time (§ 60-1438(2)(a)): "Time allowances for the diagnosis and performance of warranty work and service shall be adequate for a qualified technician to perform the work or service."

Notes

Time allowances must be 'adequate for a qualified technician' (LB 667). The franchisor may not unreasonably deny a documented request to change a uniform time allowance or add time for a specific vehicle. The duties also bind separate warrantors of engines, transmissions and rear axles ((6)). The parts markup may be changed at most twice per calendar year. The statute sets no labor-rate change limit. DATE-SENSITIVE: from 10/1/2026 (LB 972) § 60-1438 no longer applies to recreational vehicles. RV warranty compensation, audits and claims then fall under §§ 60-1460 to 60-1466 of the new RV Act, which this record does not cover.
